

Cathay Pacific Adds Kolkata to Freighter Network

Cathay Pacific Airways announced a further expansion of its freighter network with the launch of a new service to Kolkata, India, commencing 11 March 2015. Cathay Pacific will become the only carrier providing direct freighter services between Kolkata and Hong Kong.

The scheduled service will operate twice a week on a Hong Kong-New Delhi-Kolkata- Hong Kong routing. It will strengthen the airline's airfreight presence within the subcontinent, offering customers greater choice and flexibility when moving goods between South Asia and other parts of the world.

Cathay Pacific currently operates cargo services to 46 freighter destinations around the world, including Bangalore, Chennai, Delhi, Hyderabad and Mumbai in India. It also carries freight in the bellies of its 140-plus passenger aircraft that serve a growing global network.

Details of Cathay Pacific's new Kolkata freighter service from 11 March 2015 are as follows:
